HARLEY K. MEANS, PARTNER

Harley K. Means concentrates his practice in the areas of creditors' rights, commercial litigation, secured transactions, foreclosure, and bankruptcy matters.

He represents a variety of clients in Chapter 7, 11, 12, and 13 bankruptcy proceedings, including secured and unsecured lenders, bankruptcy trustees, court appointed receivers and individual and corporate debtors. Harley both prosecutes and defends bankruptcy litigation involving fraudulent transfers, preferences, reclassification of claims, and non-dischargeability actions.

In addition to his bankruptcy practice, Harley also practices in the areas of commercial litigation, commercial and residential foreclosure, loan workouts, and loan restructuring, representing both financial institutions and borrowers.
